These 10 topics were selected based on search volume, competition level, and how well each one fits the practice's specific strengths and service area. Choose a topic by the 15th — or send us your own draft if you'd prefer to write that month's content yourself. We'll handle the research, writing, and SEO optimization from there.

10 RECOMMENDED TOPICS — PICK ANY TO START

1

"How to Find a Therapist in Renton WA (What to Look For)"

Target: therapist Renton WA

Local high-intent search — people who already know they want a therapist and are trying to choose one. This topic targets the exact moment before someone books a consultation.

2

"IFS Therapy for Anxiety: How Internal Family Systems Helps You Heal"

Target: IFS therapy anxiety

Builds topical authority on the practice's core differentiator. Combines the specific modality with the most common condition clients seek help for — a high-value combination that few competitors are targeting.

3

"Couples Therapy vs. Marriage Counseling: What's the Difference?"

Target: couples counseling Renton WA

Evergreen topic with consistent search volume. Addresses a common question before clients even start searching for a provider — reaches them at the research stage, before they've chosen a practice.

4

"What to Expect in Your First Therapy Session (And How to Prepare)"

Target: first therapy session

Top-of-funnel for therapy-curious searchers who haven't committed yet. This topic builds trust and reduces the anxiety around booking — directly relevant to new-client conversion.

5

"Online Therapy in Washington State: Is Telehealth Right for You?"

Target: online therapy Washington state

Directly targets the telehealth service area and supports the statewide keyword strategy. As more clients seek remote options, this becomes a permanent high-traffic entry point.

6

"Understanding Trauma: Signs You Might Benefit from Trauma Therapy"

Target: trauma therapist Washington

High-empathy topic for people researching before they're ready to commit to booking. Positions the practice as a trusted, knowledgeable resource at a vulnerable moment in the client journey.

7

"Does Insurance Cover Therapy in Washington State? (Premera, Aetna, Kaiser)"

Target: does Premera cover therapy

Extremely high commercial intent. Searchers on this topic already know they want therapy and are just confirming their coverage — they are one step away from booking.

8

"Depression vs. Anxiety: How to Tell the Difference and Get the Right Help"

Target: depression anxiety therapist

Serves dual-diagnosis searchers and builds authority across two key service areas simultaneously. One topic does double work — reaching people searching for either condition.

9

"Therapy for Men: Why Men's Mental Health Deserves More Attention"

Target: men's therapy Washington

Targets an underserved search segment. Creates a distinct audience entry point that most practices aren't speaking to directly and supports specific therapist bios on the team.

10

"What Is LMFTA vs. LMFT? Understanding Therapist Credentials in Washington"

Target: therapist credentials Washington

Builds trust by educating prospective clients on licensing — answers the question many have but rarely ask. Especially valuable for a practice with both licensed and associate-level therapists on the team.
